a. m. Wednesday, September 1. He was one of those sturdy Pennsylvania farmers who, by their industry and thrift, have met with success in all undertakings, and at the time of his death was worth a least $100,000. He belonged to the old school Lutherans and was noted for his benevolent acts. He had a kind word for all in distress, and those to whom the God of plenty had not smiled he gave liberally. In politics he adhered strongly to the old Jeffersonian and Jacksonian doctrine, and never, it is said, "cut the Democratic ticket in a national or state election."

He will be buried from his late residence, a short distance northwest of Mechanics burg, on to-morrow (Saturday) morning at 11 o'clock.

REMARKABLE PHENOMENON.

Tobacco "Frozen" by Lightning. The Mt. Joy Star is the reliable authority for the remarkable statement that in a recent storm a blinding flash of lightning struck the highest point of an eighteenacre tobacco patch on the farm of Henry Kurtz, adjoining Mt. Joy on the south. Within a radius of ten feet a number of the tobacco stalks resemble frozen tobacco with the leaves hadly torn as if by hail. The stalks where the stroke was the heaviest were uprooted. Mr. John Haines. a farm hand, while passing by in company with his son, when about fifty feet from where the most damage was done, was so shocked that he fell to the ground, bewildered. He says that the odor resembled that of burning brimstone. His son, being confused after the shock, turned his steps in an opposite direction from the way they were going.

Birth-day Lunch.

Lawrence Knapp was 53 years old yes terday, and in consideration of that event, his good wife prepared an abundant lunch to which his friends and acquaintances were invited. The lunch tables were set in the spacious gardens in rear of Mr. Knapp's residence, East King street, and large numbers of his friends were present, including the members of the Lancaster Mænnerchor and the Citizens' band, both of which organizations furnished excellent music, both vocal and instrumental to the other guests. Congratulatory speeches b'Atlaie, the female Samson, and a host of were made by members of the Mænner- others. The street parade given by the show by Mr. Knapp and others. The occasion was one of rare social enjoyment.

Low Water.

The Conestoga creek has been unusually consequence the water power is insufficient to run the water pumps and the steam pumps have been kept running more regularly than last year. The Worthington steam pump was set in motion on the 7th of May, and during that month was kept running 15 days; in June 20 days; in July 24 days, and in August 26 days and six hours—making in all 84 days and 6 hours to the 31st of August. During the entire year of 1879 the Worthington pump was run only 85 days and 12 hours-showing largely increased.

Boy Run Over. Last evening John Horn, a boy aged 13 ing it years, residing on Dorwart street, and em. ployed at No. 3 cotton mill, was run over by a horse belonging to John Bushong, flour and feed dealer. The boy had just come out of the mill and while running across the street he was knocked down by the horse. The animal stepped on his head and body, brusing and cutting him badly. . The wagon passed over his body which was also bruised but no bones broken. The boy was picked up by the driver of the wagon and several other men and he was taken to the office of Dr. John L. Atlee, who dressed his wounds.

This morning the entire wall was thrown down to prevent its fatting. The cause of the accident was that the wall was to some extent undermined by workmen who were digging a trench for the foundation wall of an addition which is to be made to the warehouse. No one was hurt by the accident and the damage is not heavy.

Beath of a Former Lancasterian.

The Republican of Goshen, N. Y., contains a notice of the death of Mrs. Snodgrass. She was the wife of Rev. Wm. Snodgrass, a Presbyterian divine, who in time; past occasionally filled the pulpit of that church here. Her many friends here will regret to hear of her sudden death at Saratoga on Tuesday last. She was born in Lancaster in 1802 and married here in

Tramp Hearing

The tramps who were arrested in Laudis's woods on Wednesday had a hearing before Alderman Barr this afternoon, and all but one were sent to jail for the following terms: Samuel Craig, Mary Craig, Julia Shields, 90 days; Mary Kelly and James Kelly, 30 days, and John H. Brown, 10 days. Thomas Shields was the lucky man, he got off by paying the costs.

The young Democratic voters of the Ninth ward held a very pleasant picnic yesterday afternoon and evening at Green

The extra assessment having closed last evening, the assessors' books of the several wards and townships were to-day returned to the county commissioners' office where they may be seen and examined by parties interested. The assessment appears to have been a very full one.

Thickly Grown Pears.

We were to-day shown a twig, about six inches in length, which was broken from a pear tree of Fred Brodecker, of Church street. It has six very large Hancock pears upon it. They have grown so close that they almost touch each other.

The Jewish New Year.

The Jewish new year comes in on Monday, and the Israelites throughout the world will celebrate the event in the usual manner. All places of business carried on by Hebrews will be closed on Monday and Tuesday.

Police Cases.

The mayor had three drunken and disorderly cases to dispose of this morning: to be present at quarter of 8 o'clock. The clul Jeff. Moore was sent up for 5 days; Mary Pearsol for 30 days; and John Haberbush escort the Sixth ward club to the mass meeting

To Chase Ants Away. Many housekeepers in this city are troubled with red ants, which infest cupboards, closets, etc. A subscriber says that he has chased all the ants out of his house by cutting a fresh onion and laying the slices in the cupboard. This is said to be an excellent remedy.

The Second Ward. A large meeting of the Second ward Hancock and English club was held at Sprenger's hall last evening. The club ordered one hundred uniforms, and about fifty names were added to the roll.

"Fun on the Pacific."-Mr. John T. Ford's brilliant comedy company are underlined for Tuesday evening next at Fulton opera house They come direct from Baltimore and Wash ington, in which cities they achieved a pro nounced success, playing nightly to packed houses. "Fun on the Pacific," the piece in which they appear, is described as a sparkling musical melange, overflowing with fun and abounding in pretty tunes, some of the best numbers of a dozen popular comic operabeing given. The names of Misses Marie Bockel, Belle Mackenzie, Blanche Thompso Messrs. Frank Cushman and Archer, who form a portion of the east, will doubtiess be ample to secure a large audience. Madame Rentz's Minstrels,-On Monday evening next this favorite organization will appear in this city. Their last season was such a creditable one, as attested by the commendations of reputable newspapers all over the country, that they come bearing renewed claims to popular favor. Wit, jollity and music are presented by this company in attractive form and good taste. They have a num ber of new hits, including an amusing burlesque entitled "William Penn's Aunts Among the Pirates," and the Vienna orchestra and Vivandiere cornet band are retained, along with a dozen other entertaining features. Cooper & Bailey's London Circus.-The circus of Cooper & Bailey, which will exhibit in this city on Saturday, Sept. 11, is conceded by all to be the largest and best traveling. P. T. Barnum, the greatest showman living, ac knowledges that the show is a fine one and he says that it has made more money this year than the one traveling under his name. The menageric connected with the show is very large and in it there are sixteen elephants, in cluding the one which was born in Philadel phia last March. This is the only elephant ever born in captivity and it is a great card. Among the herd of elephants are the ones which perform tricks and are built in pyramids. The circus includes some of the best performers living, among whom are the following: Chas W. Fish and William Dutton, bareback riders: Lawrence Sisters, trapeze performers : Linda Jeal, who rides her horse through a hoop of fire; the Leotards and Snow Brothers, famou acrobats; W. H. Batcheller, the leaper; French tamily Davene, acrobats and trapezists: M'lle chor, and they were happily responded to is remarkably fine. In it there are two full brass bands, a troupe of colored Jubilee singers, six Scotch bagpipers and twenty golden chariots. Elephants and camels are driven in harness and the great Mardi Gras Carnival, which is original with this show, is given.

A Valuable Facts from a Safe Source. The affairs of this country have become soex tended that it is only by a carefully prepared synopsis in the form of figures that one can hope to understand what is really going on, Hon. A. R. Spofford, the Librarian of Congress, is the only man who has the facilities at his command for collecting complete national statistics and he does it with the greatest care and accuracy. His latest issue, "The American Treasury of Facts," has been sent us by Messrs, H. H. Warner & Co., proprietors of the valuable Warner Safe Remedies. This book is a miniature cyclopædia in itself, containing not only that the stream is unusually low in addition to a vast amount of national mat but that the consumption of water has also ter, about all of value that has transpired in this country during the past year, and reflects credit upon the compiler as well as upon the enterprise of Messrs, Warner & Co., in select

First of a Series of Joint Discussions Between the Rival Candidates in Indiana.

THE BATTLE GROUND.

CHICAGO, Sept. 3. - A special despatch to the Tribune from South Bend says: The first of a series of joint debates between A. G. Porter, the Republican candidate for governor of Indiana, and Franklin Landers, his Democratic opponent, which came off here yesterday, suffered in the matter of a crowd in consequence of the rain, deluging the country for miles around. Undeterred, however, by the mud and rain, from 2,000 to 2,500 of both parties gathered around the stand in the court house yard, from which the orators spoke. Dr. L. J. Ham, mayor of South Bend, introduced Mr Landers, who in an hour's speech, arraigned the Republican party of the state and nation. When he had concluded Hon. Lucius Hubbard presented Mr. Porter in a brief speech, and he in a speech of an hour and a half's duration discussed the issues between the Republican and Democratic parties in Indiana and the United States.

According to arrangement Mr. Landers closed the argument in a half hour's speech. EDGAR M. LEVAN, Esq., Both speakers were frequently interrupted by applause which was about equally de-

Hayes Speaks to 5,000 Iowans—Gen. Sher-man's Remarks to the Soldiers. BURLINGTON, Iowa, September 3,-President Hayes addressed a crowd of 5,000 people near the depot here last night. He spoke in favor of universal education to be provided by the general government.

In the course of his remarks, General Sherman said: "Boys, there are some things above politics. The profession of war is one of them. I hope no soldier will be influenced in his vote simply because I vote one way or the other, or because I hold certain opinions," Pointing to a large American flag, he said: "Let us make that flag the emblem of all that is great, good and glorious."

The presentation of Mrs. Hayes before the crowd aroused enthusiasm. The party then withdrew to the train, which at once moved off amid loud cheering. The speeches during the stay at Ottumwa were brief, and when the train was once more under way the party retired for the night.

General Sherman also spoke saying he weakly persons. The price is low for so excell hoped no one would be influenced by his opinionsbu,t each vote as he thought best. BY WIRE AND CABLE.

HOW TO GET

almost everything below value.

Every day during summer all sorts. of goods-remnants and goods that for one reason or another are in our way-are picked out and put together to be sold at such prices as they will bring. They are undesirable for us to hold; but they may be as good for the buyer as anything we have.

We have sold already this summer not less than $100,000 worth of goods at irregular prices in this way for, say, $50,000; and many thousands more are going. There is something marked down at nearly every counter in the

Everything sold is returnable if unsatisfactory at the price.

Brandy as a Medicine.

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those afficient with Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims. With a purely philanthropic motive we pre-sent to the favorable notice of invalids—espe-cially those afflicted with that miserable dis-cress Dyspowers a averaging remarks.

The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly, A Sovereign Remedy

REIGARTS OLD BRANDY, Sold by our enterprising young triend, II E SLAYMAKER, This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies, give it the preference over an other Brahmes, nomatter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases. In proof of the curative powers of

Reigart's Old Brandy,

In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon num bers of witnesses—one case in particular we cite: cite:—
A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour cructations constantly—no appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed carnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try

Reigart's Old Brandy. In his case, he looked up with astonishment, but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which helchose to cat. He still keeps it and uses a lit-tle occasionally; and since he has this medi-cine he has been of very little pecuniary bene-fit to the doctor.—A Practising Physician,
